Death on the Balcony Biography 2010

For some time now the combined forces of Mark Caramelli and Paul Hargreaves have been causing a huge stir under their guise, Death on the Balcony. Their unique style fuses a range of influences from Disco, House to Deep Techno and everything in-between depending on the time, space and environment. Years of dedicated musical passion and an eclectic appreciation of numerous genres have lead to their sound becoming perfected and receiving huge popularity across the board.

2010 has been an amazing year for them so far with numerous DJ gigs and both their productions and remixes receiving mass support from some of the biggest players on the scene. The likes of Luciano, Soul Clap, Jimpster, Wolf + Lamb and Jozif to name a few, have all been charting their releases and supporting them with mass airplay. The recently released "Aquarian Exposition" EP on their own label, Magicbag, is an inspired homage to the legendary Woodstock Festival and has been awarded Mixmag's Tune of the month in the May 2010 edition. Their imprint, Magicbag Music is currently a very popular label and receives continued support from a diverse range of people ranging from Radio 1's Mary Anne Hobbs through to Jamie Jones, Brothers Vibe and basically the majority of the underground dance community. They have been remixed on their label Magicbag & various associated labels by Simon Baker, Gavin Herlihy, Soul Clap, Jozif, & Miquel Puente with many more forthcoming projects, ep.s & remixes in the pipeline for 2011.

DOTB's DJ schedule sees them play at some of the best spots in the world alongside the likes of Moodymann, Dyed Soundorom, Josh Wink, Matthias Tanzmann and many more. Based in Leeds & regulars in London they run their own parties called Throwback (Leeds) & Emmanuelle's Party Bucket at the infamous Horse&Groom in Shoreditch. Throwback & The Party Bucket are currently popular nights in the cities and recent guests have included Soul Clap, Craig Smith, Pete Herbert, The Revenge and Mark E who are yet more artists that fully support Death on the Balcony in all that they do. More exciting events and line ups are already planned as we go into 2011 starting off with Session Victim & then Jacques Renault for Throwbacks 1st birthday bash with more parties to come.

As one of the UK's finest up and coming acts Death on the Balcony will be delivering more productions, remixes and playing world wide gigs as their range of musicality continues to evolve and they deliver a unique, well-timed narrative of the best sounds around.
