Harri - Biography

Harri is synonymous with Glasgow's vibrant House scene and the bastion of Clubs in not only its home city but also the world, the Sub Club. The Sub Club is one of the longest standing, groundbreaking establishments of its kind having been at the top of its game for more than 20 years now. Along with Domenic Cappello, Harri has continued to be a key figure not only here but also at the top spots the world over.

Harri and fellow resident Domenic Cappello created the clubs flagship night, Subculture. Subculture has hosted and debuted many of the most pinnacle figures in dance music history and is widely regarded as one of the most credible nights in the world, with very good reason.

As a producer Harri has showcased his extraordinary skills over the years, some of which you may not directly associate with him. For example the huge hit "I Feel Good Things For You", with Harri under the guise of Daddy's Favourite, was and still is a house classic. "Calling all dancers", his first single with the Pa Pa Washington Trio, was licensed to at least 8 compilations and became one of Paper Recordings biggest selling records of 2002.

As well as his residency Harri continues to guest at the best clubs across the globe and has played alongside the majority of premier league DJ's, past and present. His five year residency with Kenny Hawkes at Plastic People, in London, was regarded as one of the best house nights of the 90's and numerous press over the years have lauded Harri's unique contribution to the House scene.

Recently Harri has collaborated with The Revenge and released on labels like Nordic Trax, Deep Freeze and Bosh. To celebrate the seminal 20th Birthday of the Sub Club Soma released a double CD with DJ mixes from Harri, Domenic Cappello and Optimo. On top of this Harri and Domenic have also done a widely acclaimed Essential Mix for BBC Radio 1.
